Death of Mrs. Jennie Darden and Daughter.

Never has a more sorrowful duty fallen to our lot than to record the death of Mrs. Jennie Darden and her daughter, Miss Mary Allen, at Pensacola, Fla., from that terrible scourge, the yellow fever. The dispatch which brought the news of the daughter's death on last Sunday, also stated that the mother was in a critical condition, and daily afterwards the report was looked for with anxiety until Thursday morning came the announcement that the mother's prayers had been answered and she had joined her daughter.

Mrs. Darden was born in this county in 1838 and was about forty-four years of age at the time of her death. She was the oldest daughter of Esquire Griffin Orgain, and leaves two sisters, Mrs. Sterling Neblett and Mrs. Dr. Oliphant, and two brothers Messrs. Wesley and Benj. Orgain and a large number of other relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was married to Terrill F. Allen in 1863, who died in 1866, leaving her with one child, Mary, whom she idolized, and for whom she made every sacrifice that a loving mother could make, even that of her own life. Going to Pensacola last spring, she had succeeded in establishing herself comfortably, and when the fever broke out, thinking there was little danger, remained until it was too late to get away. When her daughter was stricken she took her place at the bedside and with unwearying devotion stood by her until laid low herself by the remorseless destroyer; finding that her child, her idol, must go she prayed that she too might be taken, and God in his mercy answered her prayer. She, early in life made a profession of religion and joined the Methodist church, ever after lived the life of a consistent Christian woman. She died Wednesday evening, the 18th inst., at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. S. Allen, the daughter, was born Aug. 22d, 1864, and was eighteen years, one month and twenty-three days old at the time of her death. Left by her father's death, while yet an infant, solely to her mother's care, there was more than ordinary love and devotion between the two, which was manifested in a thousand ways daily. Mary was of a bright, joyous nature and of a most affectionate disposition; her greatest happiness lay in giving pleasure to others, her lively, cheerful manner and her merry laugh made her a general favorite wherever she was known. It is sad indeed to think that one so young, so full of spirits and with such bright prospects for a long and happy life, should be thus early called away. Her friends however have the consolation of knowing that for several years she has been a faithful member of the church and an exemplary Christian. It is a melancholy pleasure to know, that these two fond hearts which loved each other so in life, are not divided in death.

Mr. Robert Perryman, who enlisted here in '61 in Company A, of the 14th Regiment, has returned to visit his old comrades after a rest. He has a fine reputation as a workman in his trade, that of a painter, and has received a cordial greeting from his old acquaintances here with whom he is evidently very popular. He says he is no longer "the reckless wag" that the 14th boys remember, but has settled down to hard work.

Among the numerous practical jokes with which he is credited, was one on a distinguished physician of our city, then the surgeon of the 14th. An engagement had already begun, the 14th was awaiting in line of battle to move on the enemy, the surgeon had climbed to the highest rail of a very high fence, and with his field glass was intently observing the enemy's movements, when suddenly the fearful whirring sound of an approaching bombshell was heard, and the Doctor did some lofty tumbling in order to quickly reach a full length position on the terra firma. A shout of laughter, and Perryman stealing away from the fence corner, revealed the fact that it was only his inimitable mimicry of the noise of the terrible shells soon to follow.

The Furnishing Society of the Methodist church will give entertainments on next Wednesday and Thursday nights, Oct. 25th and 26th. The best dramatic and musical talent of the city is engaged, and excellent programs are being arranged. Clarksville is justly proud of her "home talent" and never fails to liberally patronize it for any cause, and we do not doubt that the worthy object to which the proceeds will be applied will call forth crowds of houses.

Remember the time and place, Elder's Opera House, Oct. 25th and 26th. Admission, 25 cents—children, 15 cents.

Mr. J. M. Rice is making a large addition to the grounds in front of the cave. He will increase the level space enough to have a tennis alley, croquet and dancing ground. He is removing the loose rock from the branch, and will turn the streams in the cave over the precipice to the left and have a fall of about fifteen feet into a lake. After leaving the lake the water will run over a gravelly bottom for some distance. All around the lake and along the stream will be placed the large stones in position for seats. Mr. Rice is determined to make the cave the most attractive place in the South. Any one wishing to go into the cave can do so at all times. The cave is dryer than ever before, on account of the many ditches that have been dug through it.

Ben Taylor, one of the Taylor brothers, who murdered Sheriff Cate and his deputy, Conway, near Knoxville, some weeks ago, was shot and killed by Sheriff Goodall, near Lebanon, Mo., last week, while resisting arrest. The remains were taken to Chattanooga, where they were fully identified.

Mrs. Rhodes will commence her school on Monday Nov. 6. Mrs. Rhodes has no superior as an instructor of the young.

Quite a number of gay friends were gathered at the residence of our popular townsman, Mr. Oliver M. Blackman, on Thursday evening the 19th inst., to witness the happy marriage of his daughter, Miss Olivia, to Mr. Lee E. Pickering, an affable and popular young salesman in the extensive hardware house of Mr. J. F. Wood, of this city.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Lupton in his usual impressive style, and the happy pair were handed over to their assembled relatives and friends, who heartily wished them a life long happiness. It was a very happy and auspicious occasion, the sparkling eyes and pleasant smiles of all present, mingled with warm congratulations, making glad the hearts of the fair young bride and handsome groom, who showed that he fully appreciated the rich prize he had drawn in life's lottery.

The attendants were, Miss Mary Hatler and Mr. George Pickering, Miss Addie Wilson and Mr. Will Young, Miss Lennie Wilson and Mr. Jessie Pickering, and the bride and groom were ushered by Messrs. R. D. Caldwell and Piedmont Gerhart.

The bride was most beautifully attired in simple white mail, with veils and sprays of orange blossoms. The bridesmaids wore pink and blue novelties. It was a very handsome bridal party.

The young people greatly enjoyed the cutting of the bridal cake, especially when Miss Belle Keese, with trembling hands and sparkling eyes welded the carving knife and drew forth the darning needle. Elegant refreshments were served and the Mozart string band furnished sweet music throughout the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Pickering were the recipients of many beautiful and handsome presents, fittingly demonstrating the high regard and esteem in which they are held by hundreds of admiring friends.

A handsome reception was given them on last evening at the groom's parents on Greenwood Ave. The CHRONICLE casts its hearty and old slipper after the happy couple and begs leave to wish them all happiness.

Pickering-Blackman.

Mr. Gus. Rexinger, of Cincinnati, was in the city the first of the week.

Major W. J. Sykes, of Columbia, Tenn., was in the city on Monday week.

Dr. Wm. Wheeler, of Christian county, Ky., was in the city this week.

Mrs. Roach, of Clarksville, Tenn., is visiting her brother, Capt. John C. Dabney, at Nashville.

Judge J. E. Rice returned from Arcadia Wells last Tuesday. We are glad to state that his health has improved very much indeed.

Mr. O. M. Blackman has returned from his trip to Ohio, stronger in the eternal principles of pure and true Democracy than ever before.

Capt. Thos. M. Atkins and wife went up to Louisville, Ky., the first of the week to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Ky.

Mr. Robert W. Brooks, with the American Paper-box Manufacturing Company, of Nashville, was in the city this week in the interests of his house.

Mr. M. B. Coleman has taken a position with Messrs. Bloch Bros., where he will be glad to see all of his old friends and as many new ones, and will offer them all, bargains.

Revs. J. D. Barbee, Welborne Moore, J. P. McFerrin and B. M. Stephens and Messrs. B. W. Macon and S. A. Caldwell are attending the Methodist Conference at Franklin, Tenn., this week.

Capt. Frank P. Gracey and wife have returned from the watering places of the East, where they spent the summer. His friends are much pleased at his return to good health and strength.

Mrs. Judge Stites, of Louisville, Ky., has been in the city this week on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Merriweather, who has been quite sick at the residence of Mrs. Crozier, on Greenwood Ave. We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Merriweather is much improved at this writing.

Mr. Sam A. Hyman, of Clarksville, Tenn., a cousin of Mr. C. W. Bullen, of the Citizens National Bank, arrived in the city yesterday morning, and will take up his permanent residence here. He is a young man of exemplary habits and a fine education—Sedalia (Mo.) Dispatch.

Miss Ella Ford, who for several years past, has been a greatly esteemed teacher at the Academy, has accepted a position in Dr. Price's school for young ladies at Nashville, and will leave for that city on Tuesday next. She leaves a host of friends who will all wish her every success.

We are pleased to welcome to this city, Mr. G. W. Lee, of Erin, Tenn., an experienced and skilled architect, who has been accepted in a position with the well-known firm of Messrs. G. B. Wilson & Co., contractors and builders, and will attend to the architectural department of their business. Mr. Lee has also moved his family to the city.

The Hopkinsville News Era, of the 18th, says: "The beautiful Japanese quilt, made by Miss Bettie Garland, of Clarksville, Tenn., which was exhibited last week at the Fair and so much admired, was brought off Saturday evening, it brought $87, and Mr. John W. Carter was the lucky man who won it."

We understand Mr. Carter's choice was taken off his hands by Mr. Mack Bradford, of this city, who threw the highest number—46 which was the quilt. However this may be, the man who got it is to be envied, for it was universally acknowledged to be the finest and most beautiful piece of Japanese quilting ever seen in the South.

LIBERAL DONATION TO THE CONTEMPORATED NEW RAILROAD.

The Florence (Ala.) News, speaking of the new Indiana, Alabama & Texas railroad, says: "A few days ago Judge W. B. Wood received from Col. B. M. Smith, of Lewis county, Tenn., a donation of $6,000, the right of way through all of his lands and as much land as he wanted for depot grounds. Judge Wood says he has never met Col. Smith, as he has been absent from home every time when he was in that county. Col. S. spends most of his time in the northwest. He was written to on the subject and in response made this donation. If we could have a few more men of such broad and liberal minds and enterprising spirit, the railroad need not be so long built and the wilderness be made to blossom and bear fruit."

The Messrs. Gordon and Judges Wood are still enthusiastically and energetically working up this grand enterprise, and day by day brings us nearer to the time of its early construction. It will be a glorious day for Clarksville when it passes through her confines.

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage paid his respects to the Red Dragon of Intemperance in his last Sunday morning sermon at the Brooklyn Tabernacle. He characterized it as a "monster, wide-jawed, iron-roofed, fiery and all-devouring. It is the greatest evil that has ever beset the nations. Slavery was a pet lamb in comparison." He predicted that the demonium will some day be a curiosity about which antiquarians will lecture, and went for the liquor traffic in his usual unique manner. He nominated Gov. St. John, of Kansas, for President and Gov. Colquhoun, of Georgia, for second place.

W. A. SHELLEY, Agent, has for sale a fine farm of 1623 acres, situated in Dist. No. 3, near the Clarksville and Hopkinsville pike and known as the Britton Tanyard place. There is on the place, a good brick dwelling house, kitchen, dining-room and other necessary out-houses. It is only six miles from Clarksville and within 10 miles of the contemplated new railroad. He will sell it publicly on Friday Nov. 10, 1882, if not sold privately before. Will divide it to suit purchasers or sell the whole tract. Sale on the premises. Terms easy.

GEN. BATES said in his Fayetteville speech: "If you elect me Governor of Tennessee on the Democratic platform adopted in Nashville in June last, I will fold my arms when the bondholder comes and tell him he must take the 50-3, and if he refuses I will let his bonds mould and rot."

Are the people of Tennessee ready and willing to endorse such a declaration of repudiation as this?

The Government snag-boat, Uncle Sam No. 2, Capt. Wm. Strong commanding, which has been at work in this vicinity for the last few days, removing logs and snags from the river, left here yesterday going down stream and will continue work as long as the water will permit.

COL. N. BRANTON will address the citizens of Stewart county at the following time and places: Tobacco Port, Tuesday, Oct. 24; Rushing Creek Church, Wednesday, Oct. 25; Iron Mountain, Thursday, Oct. 26.

There was only one sale of tobacco on the Boards this week, that of Messrs. Ely & Kennedy, who sold, Oct. 19, four hogheads, as follows: 1 hhd. medium leaf, $7.40; 1 hhd. low leaf, $7.20; 1 hhd. common leaf, $4.90.

C. C. S. Attention! You are hereby ordered to assemble at the armory, in full dress uniform, Sunday morning, October 22, at 9:30 o'clock sharp. By order of F. S. BEAUMONT, Captain.

The October number of the Nashville Journal of Medicine and Surgery, edited by Dr. C. S. Briggs and published by H. H. Hasel, has been received. This number is in keeping with others heretofore issued, being replete with selections and original matter on the medical and surgical science.

In addition to the joint appointments heretofore made, the State Credit Democratic candidates for the Legislature, Messrs. Abernathy and Rhodes, will speak at the following times and places: Ringgold, Monday, October 23; Memphis, Tuesday, October 24; Union, Wednesday, Oct. 25; Oakwood, Friday, Oct. 27; Jackson, Saturday, Oct. 28; Woodford, Wednesday, Nov. 1; Port Royal, Saturday, Nov. 4; Lockport, Saturday, Nov. 4, at night; Hampton Station, Friday, Nov. 3; Jackson, Saturday, Nov. 4; South Clarksville, at night, Monday, Nov. 5. Speaking to begin at 11 a. m., except at South Clarksville and Lockport School House, at which it will commence at 7 p. m.

Messrs. Miliken and Jones, Readjusters, and Maj. W. K. Cummins, Low tax, candidates for the Legislature, are invited to be present and participate in the discussion. H. C. MERRITT, Chairman State Credit Dem. Ex. Com.

For Rent.—The brick dwelling, cor. Commerce and Second cross street, opposite Court House—From January 1st. Wm. M. DRAKE.

Mrs. R. R. Rhodes will re-open her School on Monday, Nov. 6th, at her residence on Main street, Oct. 21-4.

Embroidered Cashmere Dresses in all colors, cheap. R. W. BOACH.

CATARRH.

Trial Treatment Free—No Charge for Consultation. Catarrh is the forerunner of bronchial troubles, lung diseases and premature death. It is a loathsome disease, that if neglected soon attacks the vital organs. Starting as it may seem, fully one-third of the inhabitants of this section are afflicted with nasal catarrh, and fully one-half of the deaths from consumption are directly traceable to neglected cases. I have a radical remedy for catarrh and will guarantee to cure all cases that will consent to be treated by my office for treatment. My terms are very reasonable, and a trial treatment is given free of charge to all applicants. Call for references to de-ferate cases cured four years ago, in Clarksville and vicinity.
